YOUR PROGRAMME

Day 1 - Bastia

Your holiday starts in Bastia at your hotel in the afternoon. If you have time to discover the capital of "Haute Corse", it's worthwhile visiting the old port and the citadel. From the old city there are wonderful panoramic views over the sea and surroundings. For dinner, we advise you to go to the old port which has a very lively atmosphere in the summer.
Night in Bastia.

Day 2 - Cap Corse

Depending on the option chosen: bike delivery to your hotel this morning.

In the morning, you get on your bike and set off on a beautiful stage towards the north. The route initially follows the coastline, offering lovely sea views, before heading inland through a wooded and unspoilt landscape. You then cross the island to reach the western coast, dominated by impressive cliffs.

Along the way, you will come across Genoese and Paoline towers, reminders of Corsica's history, as well as old convents and mills. You end the day in Centuri, a charming fishing village where you will spend the night.

Cycling distances:
55 km (Elevation gain: 490m / Elevation loss: 490m / Min. altitude: 3m / Max. altitude: 359m)
or 69 km (Elevation gain: 800m / Elevation loss: 800m / Min. altitude: 1m / Max. altitude: 350m)

Day 3 - From the Cape to the Gulf of Saint-Florent.

You leave Cap Corse behind and head south towards Saint-Florent. Depending on the route you choose, you may pass through the village of Patrimonio, renowned throughout Corsica for its prestigious vineyards. Several wineries welcome visitors for tastings of local wines.

Throughout the ride, you will enjoy breathtaking views over the Gulf of Saint-Florent. Once you arrive, take some time to explore the citadel, stroll along the lively harbour and wander through the shopping streets of this charming seaside town.

Overnight in a 3-star hotel in Saint-Florent.

Day 4 - From Nebbiu to Castagniccia

Today, you leave Saint-Florent and head towards Castagniccia, following the quiet roads through Corsica's inland countryside. After leaving the coast behind, you cross the rolling landscapes of the Nebbio and reach Murato, famous for its remarkable San Michele church, one of the finest examples of Romanesque architecture in Corsica.

The route then continues towards the Col de Lento before gradually descending into Castagniccia and its villages surrounded by chestnut forests. A beautiful cycling day combining mountain scenery, authentic villages and peaceful roads.

Overnight in a guesthouse in Casabianca.

Cycling distance:
63 km (Elevation gain: 1,490m / Elevation loss: 1,070m / Min. altitude: 0m / Max. altitude: 880m)

Day 5 - From Casabianca to Alando

You continue your journey through Castagniccia towards Alando. The route winds its way through the mountains and chestnut forests, passing small hilltop villages and lush green landscapes.

Along the way, you will pass through the village of La Porta, one of the most beautiful villages in the region, known for its
